

TRINGING in the NEW YEAR

Monday December 31
10:30pm - 12:30am

Join us for a wonderful way of celebrating the New Year! Letting go of the old and cleaning one-self with traditional informal noodles and mochi in the sangha house. One period of zazen (silent meditation), at midnight we will all strike and sound the bonsho (great bell) 108 times to welcome the Year of the Boar. Please bring a small piece of paper inscribed with any Karma you wish to burn away during the ceremony. Refreshments will be offered following the ceremony.

Event is open to the public - members, family and friends. Kids too!!!

- 10:30 informal soba serving
- 11:15-11:45 zazen
- 11:45 recite bodhisattva vows
- 12:00 108 strikes on great bell
- 12:20 informal reception

$20 donation per person is greatly appreciated!
